MESSAGE FROM LISA

Seeking Perspective

Beloved Friends, The power of perspective. That's what I am thinking about today. That is what I am praying for in this season of discontinuity. That is what feels both imminent and illusive sometimes within the same day, or even the same hour. What is perspective? Simply put: the ability to reframe a situation- to [...]

Virtual Coffee Hour: Sunday 5/31 at 11AM Via Zoom

We will offer a 30-minute virtual Coffee Hour this week following our 10:00 online worship service. Follow the Zoom dial-in information below to join us at 11:00 for coffee and conversation.

Online Prayer Vigil: Monday 6/1 at 7PM

Presiding Bishop, Michael Curry has called upon Episcopalians to join with others to “grieve and honor those who have died from COVID-19”. Faith leaders from across the country will recognize Monday, June 1 as the National Day of Mourning and Lament, just after the U.S. surpassed the 100,000 person death mark from COVID-19. Read [...]

Evening Exhale: Tuesday 6/2 at 9PM

A New Evening Exhale will Premiere on Tuesday, May 26 at 9:00PM! Join us on Facebook each Tuesday evening for the next three weeks for our Evening Exhale, a time to relax our bodies and calm our spirits before bed. We'll offer an opening proverb and close with a final benediction from Lisa. A professional from Modern Dance Co., Dominic Glover, will lead us each week in a series of stretches and holding poses that can be performed anyone to “fall behind or drop out.” In this season of connecting in new ways, we are introducing Trinity’s Daily Bread.

Thank You!!

We’d like to share our deepest gratitude to those in our Trinity community that have -and that will- share their time and voices for our Sunday online worship services. To the musicians, liturgical team, technical experts, and the individuals and families in our faith community- THANK YOU for lending us your time, talent and love!

Community Breakfast Suspended

Due to the increasing risk towards the health and safety of our volunteers, we feel that it is time to make the very hard decision to suspend our Sunday breakfast distribution to help reduce exposure to and spread of the Coronavirus. We plan to resume as soon as it is safe for all of us [...]

EPISCOPAL NEWS SERVICE

After 100,000 COVID-19 Deaths in U.S., Interfaith Leaders, Mayors Call for Day of Mourning and Lament

05/27/2020

As we mark the death of 100,000 people in the U.S. from COVID-19, an unprecedented group of 100+ national faith leaders—from Christian, Jewish and Muslim traditions representing major denominations, national faith-based organizations, local congregations, and millions of people of faith across the country—call for a National Day of Mourning and Lament. Together, they look to federal, state, and local elected officials to observe Monday, June 1 as National Day of Mourning and nightly before bed.

Lectio Divina: Wednesday 6/3 at 7PM Via Zoom

Join us on Zoom each Wednesday evening from 7:00-8:00PM for a time of Lectio Divina, an ancient contemplative practice of engaging the Scriptures. Each week, we will read together a portion of the Gospel text for the upcoming Sunday and be led in a time of reflection, sharing, silence, and prayer. No reading or preparation necessary—just show up when you are able and come as you are, with your whole heart and soul.

Sacred Ground Series

THERE IS STILL SPACE TO SIGN UP!! Sacred Ground is a film- and readings-based dialogue series on race, grounded in faith. Small groups are invited to walk through chapters of America's history of race and racism, while weaving in threads of family story, economic class, and political and regional identity. The 10-part series is built around a powerful online curriculum of documentary films and readings that focus on Indigenous, Black, Latino, and Asian/Pacific American histories as they intersect with European American histories.
